

As per Article 13 of the Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698; 'The relevant person submits his requests regarding the implementation of this Law to the data controller in writing or by other methods to be determined by the Board.' The data controller concludes the requests included in the application within the shortest time and within thirty days at the latest free of charge depending on the nature of the request. However, in case that the transaction requires an additional cost, the fee in the tariff determined by the Board may be charged. The data controller accepts or rejects the request by explaining the reason and notifies the relevant person of his answer in writing or in the electronic environment. If the request in the application is accepted, the data controller performs what is necessary. If the application is caused by the failure of the data controller, the fee received is refunded to the relevant person.'
